

Georgian College - Adobe Illustrator Basic

Adobe Illustrator - Interface Elements

- Document Window: This contains Artboard and Pasteboard and is where artwork is displayed
- Toolbox: This contains the most commonly used tools and subtools (tab to hide toolbox and palettes)
- Palettes: Tabbed floating windows which can be open and closes and are used to control settings
- Menus: This is the main controls of the program which opens to many other submenus
- Status Bar: This displays information regarding the selected tool and window information
- Page & Artboard: Display the area in which will be displayed upon output
- Ruler: Used to display ruler information and can be moved using top left corner (apple + R)
- Baseline Grid: Grid used as guideline for artwork
- Guidelines: User created guidelines dragged out of the rulers
- Control Palette: This is a new feature to CS2 in which 80% of your palette options are displayed

